WSP 2003 Annual Report Available

Chief Lowell M. Porter announced today the Washington State Patrol (WSP) 2003 Annual Report is now available and may be viewed by going to the WSP Web site at www.wsp.wa.gov under the Records and Reports link.

The report provides a variety of information from each of the six bureaus of the WSP, including Field Operations, Investigative Services, Fire Protection, Technical Services, Forensic Laboratory Services, and Management Services.

"The men and women of WSP have worked hard in 2003 to provide outstanding public safety services to the citizens of Washington State," said Chief Porter. "Their work has demonstrated their commitment through their ability to continually raise the standards and surpass expectations. We are excited to share our 2003 Annual Report with the citizens of Washington and to continue our commitment in 2004," he added.
